

For a $25 donation to the Friends of Midlothian
Library

You can dedicate a book in the library's collection in memory of a loved one or in honor of a graduation, wedding, anniversary, or other milestone.

A book plate like this:

will appear inside each book you donate.

Friends of the Midlothian Public Library is a volunteer, 501(c)3 non-profit organization.

Members are people who value the vital role the Library plays as a community resource. We promote the welfare and growth of the Library by:

- Contributing funds for programs, equipment, and resources
- Coordinating fundraising events
- Providing volunteer support
- Encouraging a love of reading

Our meetings are generally on the 1st Thursday of each month at 6:00 pm. We encourage your participation and welcome your suggestions in support of our Library. If you have comments or questions, please contact us at friends@midlothianlibrary.org, or call the library at (708) 535-2027. Thank you!
